General has $5713.10
Still have several toques to sell and one hoodie to sell
-Financial Summary-see attached
5. COPAC Report- Amanda was unable to attend, parent inclusive meeting date given, insurance at fun fairs? ensure bounce house providers have.
6. Hot Lunch Report- Breanna numbers are down a little due to holidays and schedule changes but rising back up. Wrap Zone has not been answering emails- filled the spot with Deli City (feedback was given for improvements).Possible new vendor sunshine market.
7. Administration Report-Thomas see attached-went over staffing updates, gym divider is installed-its great, looks good and works well.Bleachers and curtains cant be out at same time. New sound system is installed- thank you to PAC. Basketball schedules are out. Provincial Ed survey needs to be in by May 2. Does PAC have feedback from digital report cards? Quite a few prefer paper- alot of managing online accounts with multiple kids in different schools- survey would be well received. Early enrollment projections- numbers are down a little so we may lose our 2 support positions.

8. New Business: Purdy's Chocolate Fundraiser- Breanna, Janelle and Katie will do Easter campaign. Breanna asking about Mr. Noodle Cup a Soups- CEA's have been giving out and only have one kettle- Thomas will see if more kettles are needed- there is hot water option in water jug stands in portables. Katie asked what is brown bag lunch, does school get enough?- yes school gets what they need. They also have breakfast club and groceries delivered as needed. Breakfast club is for everyone!!
